PART 4

WRITING

Time: 30 minutes

You see this announcement in an international magazine called Film Now:

We are compiling a list of the five best and worst films of the last five years, according to our readers. Send us a review of your nomination for the best or worst film you have seen in the last five years, and we will take it into consideration when compiling our list. The best reviews will be published with the list.

Write your review (100-140 words).

Remember to include and underline the following:

- a sentence with Indirect Speech;
- a sentence with Conditional 2;
- 1-2 phrasal verbs;
- a proverb

In this review, I'm going to give a ~~talk~~ a talk about the film called "Oppenheimer", which I think is the best film I've seen in the last five years. Actually, I wouldn't know what to write about if I didn't watch this movie.

This film was released by Christopher Nolan back in 2023, who said that this was one of his best works ever. "I think that this movie might actually be the best one I've released" he said.

Not walking around the bush, the film tells us a story about Robert Oppenheimer, who created the first atomic bomb in order to help the United States to get rid of nazism in the middle of the 20th century.

I really enjoyed this movie because of its interesting plot and breath-catching final, that's why I think that it's ~~the~~ the best movie I've seen in the last five years.
